BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A") is intended to assist readers in understanding the business environment, trends and significant changes in the results of operations and financial condition of Goodfood Market Corp. and its subsidiaries (the "Company" or "Goodfood") for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026 and should be read in conjunction with its audited annual consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes for the 52 weeks ended September 6, 2025 and its interim condensed consolidated financial statements and notes for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026. Please also refer to Goodfood's press release announcing its results for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026, issued on April 21, 2026.

Quarterly reports, the Annual Report, and the Annual Information Form can be found on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca and under the "Investor Relations – Financial Information" section of our website: <https://www.makegoodfood.ca/en/investors>. Press releases are available on SEDAR+ and under the "Investor Relations – Press Releases" section of our corporate website.

The Company's unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard ("IAS") 34, Interim Financial Reporting as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and the financial information herein was derived from those statements.

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026 have been prepared on the basis that the Company will continue as a going concern, which presumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future.

During the 13-weeks ended March 7, 2026, the Company recorded a net loss of $6.8 million and had cash used in operating activities of $2.4 million. In addition, as of the date of issuance of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements, Goodfood is evaluating its options in relation to the settlement of the convertible debentures maturing on March 31, 2027 (the "2027 Convertible Debentures"). In the event that the Company does not modify the current terms of the 2027 Convertible Debentures, $29.0 million will become payable on March 31, 2027. Although the Company has the option to redeem its 29,046 2027 Convertible Debentures in common shares at or before maturity on March 31, 2027, at the issuance date of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements, the Company would have to issue approximately 151 million common shares to do so, based on the volume weighted average trading price of the company's shares on the TSX for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day preceding the issuance date of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements. As the issuance of this quantum of common shares could require shareholders' approval in certain situations, the Company does not fully control the outcome of using its redemption right using common shares and avoiding cash repayment of the 2027 Convertible Debentures.

The Company has relied upon external financing to fund its operations in the past, primarily through the issuance of debt and equity. The Company's business plan is dependent upon generating positive cash flows, the continued financial support of its shareholders or lenders, either modifying the current terms of the 2027 Convertible Debentures or redeeming the 2027 Convertible Debentures using common shares and/or raising additional funds to finance operations and repay its financial commitments within and beyond the next twelve months. While the Company has been successful in securing financing in the past, modifying the terms of the 2027 Convertible Debentures and obtaining approval for the issuance of common shares for the redemption of the 2027 Convertible Debentures, if applicable, and/or raising additional funds is dependent on a number of factors outside the Company's control, and as such there is no assurance that it will be able to do so in the future. If the Company is unable to realize its projected revenues and generate positive cash flows from operations, modify the terms of the 2027 Convertible Debentures, obtain approval for the issuance of common shares for the redemption of the 2027 Convertible Debentures, if applicable, and/or obtain sufficient additional financing, it may have to curtail operations and development activities, any of which could harm the business, financial condition and results of operations.

Due to the factors described above, Management has concluded that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue operating as a going concern and realize its assets and settle its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis and do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classifications of the assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to achieve its plan and continue in business. If the going concern assumption was not appropriate for the interim condensed consolidated financial statements, then adjustments would be necessary to the carrying value of assets and liabilities, the reported expenses and the classification of items in the interim condensed consolidated statements of financial position. Such adjustments could be material.

All amounts herein are expressed in Canadian dollars unless otherwise indicated. Certain totals, subtotals and percentages may not agree due to rounding.

In this MD&A, references to "we", "our", "Goodfood" or the "Company" refer to Goodfood Market Corp. and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

Management determines whether information is material based on whether they believe a reasonable investor's decision to buy, sell or hold securities of the Company would likely be influenced or changed should the information be omitted or misstated, and discloses material information accordingly.

The information in this MD&A is current to April 21, 2026, unless otherwise noted.

Such forward-looking information includes, but is not limited to, information with respect to our objectives and the strategies to achieve these objectives, as well as information with respect to our beliefs, plans, expectations, anticipations, assumptions, estimates and intentions, including, without limitation, statements in the “Financial Outlook” section of the MD&A. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following risk factors which are discussed in greater detail under “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Information Form for the 52 weeks ended September 6, 2025 available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca and under the “Events and Presentations” section of our website at www.makegoodfood.ca/en/investors : history of negative operating cash flow, food industry including current industry inflation levels, indebtedness and impact upon financial condition, future capital requirements, quality control and health concerns, regulatory compliance, regulation of the industry, public safety issues, product recalls, damage to Goodfood’s reputation, social media, transportation disruptions, storage and delivery of perishable foods, product liability, unionization activities, consolidation trends, ownership and protection of intellectual property, evolving industry, reliance on management, fulfillment centres and logistics channels, factors which may prevent realization of growth targets, general economic conditions and disposable income levels, competition, availability and quality of raw materials, environmental and employee health and safety regulations, online security breaches and disruptions, reliance on data centers, open source license compliance, operating risk and insurance coverage, management of growth, limited number and scope of products, conflicts of interest, litigation, food costs and availabilities, catastrophic events, risks associated with payments from customers and third parties, being accused of infringing intellectual property rights of others, climate change and environmental risks, losing our certified B Corp status, as well as an inability to maintain high social responsibility standards could lead to reputational damage and adversely affect our business and Environment, Social and Governance (“ESG”) matters. Certain assumptions were made in preparing the forward-looking information concerning the availability of capital resources, business performance, market conditions, as well as customer demand.

Weakness in sales or consumer confidence could result in an increasingly challenging operating environment. Despite the Company sourcing most of its products in Canada, these tariffs can increase costs of goods sourced locally.

METRICS AND NON-IFRS FINANCIAL MEASURES

The table below defines metrics and non-IFRS financial measures used by the Company throughout this MD&A. Non-IFRS financial measures do not have standardized definitions prescribed by IFRS and, therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. They are provided as additional information to complement IFRS measures and to provide a further understanding of the Company's results of operations from our perspective. Accordingly, they should not be considered in isolation nor as a substitute for analysis of our financial information reported under IFRS and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements for the periods indicated.

Metrics	Definitions
Active customers	An active customer is a customer that has placed an order on our e-commerce platforms, including our subsidiaries, within the last three months. For greater certainty, an active customer is only accounted for once, although different products and multiple orders might have been purchased within a quarter. While the active customers metric is not an IFRS or non-IFRS financial measure, and, therefore, does not appear in, and cannot be reconciled to a specific line item in the Company's consolidated financial statements, we believe that the active customers metric is a useful metric for investors because it is indicative of potential future net sales. The Company reports the number of active customers at the beginning and end of the period, rounded to the nearest thousand.
EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA & Adjusted EBITDA margin	EBITDA is defined as net income or loss before net finance costs, depreciation and amortization and income taxes. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as EBITDA excluding share-based payments expense, reorganization and other related net costs (gains) pursuant to the Company's costs saving initiatives, write-down of inventories as a result of the Company's reorganization activities and acquisition costs. Adjusted EBITDA margin is defined as the percentage of adjusted EBITDA to net sales. EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA, and adjusted EBITDA margin are non-IFRS financial measures. We believe that EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA, and adjusted EBITDA margin are useful measures of financial performance to assess the Company's ability to seize growth opportunities in a cost-effective manner, to finance its ongoing operations and to service its debt. They also allow comparisons between companies with different capital structures. We also believe that these metrics are useful measures of financial performance to assess underlying trends in our ongoing operations without the variations caused by the impacts of the items described above and facilitates the comparison across reporting periods. Please refer to the "Metrics and non-IFRS financial measures – reconciliation" section of the MD&A for a reconciliation of these non-IFRS financial measures to the most comparable IFRS financial measures.
Free cash flow & Adjusted free cash flow	Free cash flow is defined as net cash from operating activities less additions to fixed assets and additions to intangible assets. This measure allows the Company to assess its financial strength and liquidity as well as to assess how much cash is generated and available to invest in growth opportunities, to finance its ongoing operations and to service its debt. It also allows comparisons between companies with different capital structures. Adjusted free cash flow is defined as free cash flow excluding cash payments made to costs related to reorganization activities as well as acquisition costs. We believe that adjusted free cash flow is a useful measure when comparing between companies with different capital structures by removing variations caused by the impacts of the items described above. We also believe that this metric is a useful measure of financial and liquidity performance to assess underlying trends in our ongoing operations without the variations caused by the impacts of the items described above and facilitates the comparison across reporting periods.

	Please refer to the "Metrics and non-IFRS financial measures – reconciliation" section of the MD&A for a reconciliation of these non-IFRS financial measures to the most comparable IFRS financial measures.
Total net debt to adjusted EBITDA (also named net leverage)	Total net debt to adjusted EBITDA is calculated as total net debt divided by the last four quarters adjusted EBITDA. Total net debt consists of the liability component of the convertible debentures less cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities. The last four quarters adjusted EBITDA is calculated by summing the actual adjusted EBITDA results of the current quarter and the three immediately preceding quarters. We believe that total net debt to adjusted EBITDA is a useful metric to assess the Company's ability to manage debt and liquidity. Please refer to the "Liquidity and Capital Resources" section of the MD&A for a reconciliation of this non-IFRS financial measure to the most comparable IFRS financial measures.

METRICS AND NON-IFRS FINANCIAL MEASURES – RECONCILIATION

We present certain metrics to assist investors in better understanding our performance, including metrics which are not measures recognized by IFRS. Definitions of these non-IFRS financial measures are provided in the “Metrics and Non-IFRS Financial Measures” section at the beginning of this MD&A and are important metrics to be considered when analyzing our performance.

ACTIVE CUSTOMERS

	For the 13 weeks ended		For the 26 weeks ended
	March 7, 2026	March 8, 2025	March 7, 2026	March 8, 2025
Active customers, beginning of period	66,000	106,000	66,000	101,000
Net change in active customers	(7,000)	(22,000)	(7,000)	(17,000)
Active customers, end of period	59,000	84,000	59,000	84,000
% net change in active customers	(11)%	(21)%	(11)%	(17)%

Active customers decreased by 7,000 for the 13 weeks ended March 7, 2026, a 10% improvement compared to a decrease of 22,000 in the same quarter last year. The 7,000 active customers decrease in the second quarter of Fiscal 2026 is mainly driven by lower order rate as a result of the holiday seasonality and lower marketing and incentive offerings.

EBITDA, ADJUSTED EBITDA AND ADJUSTED EBITDA MARGIN

The reconciliation of net loss to EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margin is as follows:

(In thousands of Canadian dollars, except percentage information)

	For the 13 weeks ended		For the 26 weeks ended
	March 7, 2026	March 8, 2025	March 7, 2026	March 8, 2025
Net loss	$ (6,771)	$ (2,388)	$ (9,352)	$ (4,075)
Net finance costs	2,156	1,856	4,232	3,287

Income tax expense	19	–	28	–
EBITDA	$ (3,321)	$ 1,138	$ (2,526)	$ 2,463
Write-down of inventories	437	–	437	–

Adjusted EBITDA margin (%)	(4.4) %	4.5%	0.1 %	4.6%

For the 13 weeks ended March 7, 2026, adjusted EBITDA margin decreased by 8.9 percentage points compared to the same quarter last year, mainly driven by lower gross margin due to higher shipping, labour and other production costs as a result of the temporary suspension from the CFIA combined with lower net sales due to the impact of the license suspension and lower active customers leading to lower order rate. The decrease in gross margin was partially offset by lower selling, general and administrative expenses primarily from lower marketing spend as well as higher basket size. Overall, adjusted EBITDA decreased by $2.3 million this quarter compared to the same quarter last year.

For the 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026, adjusted EBITDA margin decreased by 4.5 percentage points compared to the same period last year mainly driven by lower net sales as a result of the license suspension and lower active customers leading to lower order rates and lower gross margin mainly as a result of higher shipping costs and other production costs. The decrease was partially offset by an increase in basket size. Overall, adjusted EBITDA decreased by $3.0 million compared to the same period last year while net sales decreased by $15.1 million. The lower net sales impact on the adjusted EBITDA was partially offset by lower marketing spend and wages and salaries.

FREE CASH FLOW AND ADJUSTED FREE CASH FLOW

The reconciliation of net cash flows from operating activities to free cash flow and adjusted free cash flow is as follows:

(In thousands of Canadian dollars)

	For the 13 weeks ended		For the 26 weeks ended
	March 7, 2026	March 8, 2025	March 7, 2026	March 8, 2025

Additions to fixed assets	(11)	(265)	(54)	(453)
Additions to intangible assets	(130)	(147)	(246)	(321)
Free cash flow	$ (2,582)	$ (1,564)	$ (1,385)	$ 263
Payments made to reorganization and other related costs	559	–	610	–
Payments made to acquisition costs	–	75	–	102
Adjusted free cash flow	$ (2,023)	$ (1,489)	$ (775)	$ 365

For the 13 weeks ended March 7, 2026, adjusted free cash flow decreased by $0.5 million compared to the same quarter last year mainly driven by a decrease in profitability resulting from lower gross margin and lower net sales, partially offset by lower marketing spend and improvement in the change in non-cash operating working capital as a result of a favorable increase in accounts payable and accrued liabilities mainly due to timing of vendor payments. In the second quarter of Fiscal 2025, the Company invested in fire compliance work in the Montreal warehouse resulting in higher addition to fixed assets compared to the second quarter of Fiscal 2026.

For the 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026, adjusted free cash flow decreased by $1.1 million compared to the same period last year mainly driven by a decrease in profitability resulting from lower net sales and lower gross margin, partially offset by lower marketing spend and improvement in the change in non-cash operating working capital as a result of favorable timing of vendor payments. In addition, in Fiscal 2025, the Company invested in fire compliance work in the Montreal warehouse resulting in higher addition to fixed assets compared to Fiscal 2026.

(1) The gross profit and gross margin for the 13 weeks ended March 7, 2026 include a write-down of inventories of $0.4 million (March 8, 2025 – Nil).

(2) Gross margin is defined as gross profit divided by net sales.

VARIANCE ANALYSIS FOR THE SECOND QUARTER OF 2026 COMPARED TO SECOND QUARTER OF 2025

- The decrease in net sales is explained by the decrease in active customers driving lower orders combined with the temporary CFIA suspension in the second quarter of 2026, partially offset by an increase in average order value. The decrease in active customers can be explained mainly by the CFIA suspension, and lower marketing and incentive offerings.
- The decrease in gross profit is driven mainly by the decrease in net sales as well as higher shipping, labour and other production costs mainly driven by the temporary CFIA suspension. This decrease was partially offset by an increase in average order value compared to the same quarter last year. Gross margin decreased by 12 percentage points mainly due to costs related to our temporary CFIA suspension and lower fixed cost absorption partially offset by the increase in average order value.
- The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses is primarily due to lower marketing spend and wages and salaries. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales decreased by 0.9 percentage points to 38.0% compared to 38.9% in the same quarter last year primarily driven by lower marketing spend partially offset by lower net sales.
- The reorganization and other related costs in the second quarter of Fiscal 2026 are mainly due to employee termination costs.
- The increase in net loss is primarily driven by lower profitability as a result of lower net sales and gross profit combined with reorganization costs partially offset by lower selling, general and administrative expenses.

⁽¹⁾ The gross profit and gross margin for the 26 weeks ended March 7, 2026 include a write-down of inventories of $0.4 million (March 8, 2025 – Nil).

VARIANCE ANALYSIS FOR YEAR-TO-DATE 2026 COMPARED TO YEAR-TO-DATE 2025

- The decrease in net sales is explained by the decrease in active customers driving lower orders combined with the temporary CFIA suspension in the second quarter of 2026 partially offset by an increase in average order value. The decrease in active customers can be explained mainly by lower marketing and incentive offerings combined with the temporary CFIA suspension in the second quarter of 2026.
- The decrease in gross profit is explained mainly by a decrease in net sales as well as higher shipping, labour and other production costs primarily driven by the temporary CFIA suspension. This decrease was partially offset by lower incentives as a percentage of net sales as well as an increase in average order value compared to the same period last year. Gross margin decreased by 3.9 percentage points mainly due to higher shipping, labour and other production costs driven by the temporary CFIA suspension combined with lower fixed cost absorption partially offset by higher average order value.
- The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses is primarily due to lower marketing spend and wages and salaries. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales increased by 1.6 percentage points from 37.2% to 38.8% primarily driven by fixed cost absorption due to lower net sales.
- The reorganization and other related costs in Fiscal 2026 are mainly due to employee termination costs.
- The increase in net finance costs is mainly due to a decrease in the fair value of the marketable securities.
- The increase in net loss is primarily driven by lower profitability as a result of lower net sales and gross profit combined with reorganization costs partially offset by lower selling, general and administrative expenses.

Total debt	41,870	46,186
Cash and cash equivalents	7,382	17,383
Marketable securities	2,046	1,721

Total net debt to adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	10.41	3.83

⁽¹⁾ For the definition of these Non-IFRS financial measures, please refer to the "Metrics and Non-IFRS Financial Measures" section of this MD&A.

The Company's total net debt increased by $5.4 million and its total net debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio was 10.41 compared to 3.83 last year. This is mainly explained by the Company's reduction in cash and cash equivalents and EBITDA driven by lower net sales and lower gross margin.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company's objective in managing its capital structure is to ensure a sufficient liquidity position to finance its operations, its growth and to deliver competitive returns on invested capital. The Company has defined its capital as debt, if any, the liability component of its convertible debentures and its shareholders' deficit net of cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities.

The Company is not subject to debt covenants as it does not have any outstanding debt with a lender.

In managing its capital structure, the Company monitors performance throughout the year to ensure anticipated working capital requirements and capital expenditures are funded from operations and available cash. The Company manages its capital structure and may make adjustments to it in order to support the broader corporate strategy or in response to changes in economic conditions and risk. In order to maintain or adjust its capital structure, the Company issues new shares, issues new debt, or reduces the amount of existing debt.

The Company has generated positive cash flows from operations and adjusted free cash flow in seven of the ten last quarters, providing a base for capital structure flexibility to fund its operations and capital expenditures.

In order to manage its capital structure, the Company has the option to redeem its 2027 Debentures in common shares in accordance with its 2027 Redemption Right when it matures. At the issuance date of this MD&A, the Company would have to issue approximately 151 million common shares to redeem its 2027 Debentures if settled in common shares at the March 31, 2027 maturity date.

CONVERTIBLE DEBENTURES

2028 Debentures

On February 6, 2023, the Company issued 12,675 convertible unsecured subordinated debentures (the "2028 Debentures") at a price of $1,000 per Debenture for gross proceeds of $12.7 million. The 2028 Debentures mature on February 6, 2028 (the "2028 Maturity Date") and bear a fixed interest rate of 12.5% per annum. The interest portion for the period commencing on the issuance date and ending in February 2025 was capitalized semi-annually and is convertible at a price equal to the volume weighted average trading price of the Common Shares on the TSX for the five (5) consecutive trading days ending on the date on which such interest portion becomes due, plus a premium of 50%. Commencing on February 6, 2025, and until the 2028 Maturity Date, the interest portion will be payable semi-annually in cash in arrears on February 6 and August 6 of each year.

The 2028 Debentures are convertible into common shares of the Company at the option of the holder at any time prior to the close of business on the earlier of the last business day immediately preceding the 2028 Maturity Date and the last business day immediately preceding the date specified for redemption by the Company at a price of $0.75 (the "2028 Conversion Price") per common share.

As of February 6, 2026, Goodfood may repurchase the non-converted portion of a 2028 Debenture at an amount of the principal and accrued interest plus an amount providing the holder with an internal rate of return (IRR) equal to 18% for the period during which such Debenture will have been outstanding. The holders may require a repurchase on the same terms upon a change of control of the Company.

The 2028 Debentures are direct, subordinated unsecured obligations of the Company, subordinated to any senior indebtedness of the Company, including the Company's credit facility, and ranking equally with one another and with all other existing and future subordinated unsecured indebtedness of the Company to the extent subordinated on the same terms.

The conversion option, net of related issuance costs and deferred income taxes, has been recorded in shareholders' deficit for an amount of $0.2 million. Factoring in the 2028 Debentures issuance costs, the effective interest rate on the Debentures is 13.5%.

As at March 7, 2026, 12,675 of 2028 Debentures (September 6, 2025 – 12,675) were outstanding at a price of $1,000 per Debenture.

2027 Debentures

On February 11, 2022, the Company issued 30,000 convertible unsecured subordinated debentures (the "2027 Debentures") at a price of $1,000 per Debenture for gross proceeds of $30 million. The 2027 Debentures mature on March 31, 2027 (the "2027 Maturity Date") and bear a fixed interest rate of 5.75% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears on March 31 and September 30 of each year, commencing September 30, 2022.

The 2027 Debentures are convertible into common shares of the Company at the option of the holder at any time prior to the close of business on the earlier of the last business day immediately preceding the 2027 Maturity Date and the last business day immediately preceding the date specified for redemption by the Company at a price of $4.60 (the "2027 Conversion Price") per common share.

On or after March 31, 2025, and prior to March 31, 2026, provided that the volume weighted average trading price of the Company's common shares on the TSX for the 20 consecutive trading days preceding the date on which the notice of redemption is given is not less than 125% of the 2027 Conversion Price, the 2027 Debentures may be redeemed in whole or in part at the option of the Company at a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest (the "2027 Redemption Right"). On or after March 31, 2026, and prior to the 2027 Maturity Date, the 2027 Debentures may be redeemed in cash or common shares in whole or in part at the option of the Company at a price equal to their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest.

In the event of a change in control, the Company will be required to make a payment to the holders of the 2027 Debentures in accordance with the make-whole premium provisions set forth by the indenture of the 2027 Debentures.

The conversion option, net of related issuance costs and deferred income taxes, was recorded in shareholders' deficit for an amount of $4.5 million. Factoring in the 2027 Debentures issuance costs, the effective interest rate on the Debentures is 12.6%.

(2) The sum of basic and diluted (loss) income per share on a quarterly basis may not equal basic and diluted (loss) income per share on a year-to-date basis due to rounding.

(3) Gross margin is defined as gross profit divided by net sales.

Quarter-over-quarter variations in net sales were caused by the various factors including the following:

- seasonality which is the strongest in the second quarter due to the winter holidays and the fourth quarter due to summer months, when the number of active customers and order rate trend lower;
- impacts of economic conditions which led to a shift in customer ordering behaviors;
- marketing campaigns and customer incentives;
- fluctuations in inflation.

Quarter-over-quarter variations in net (loss) income were caused by the various factors including the following:

- seasonality which is the strongest in the fourth quarter due to summer months and the second quarter due to the winter holidays, when the number of active customers and order rate trend lower and can result in lower operating margins;
- impacts of economic conditions which led to inflationary pressures partially offset by increases in basket prices;
- marketing campaigns and customer incentives.

TRENDS AND SEASONALITY

The Company's net sales and expenses are impacted by seasonality. During the winter holiday season and the summer season, the Company anticipates net sales to be lower as a higher proportion of customers elect to skip their delivery. The Company generally anticipates the number of active customers to be lower during these periods. During periods with significantly colder or warmer weather, the Company anticipates packaging costs to be higher due to the additional packaging required to maintain food freshness and quality.

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

CREDIT RISK

Credit risk is the risk of an unexpected loss if a counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligation. The Company regularly monitors credit risk exposure and takes steps to mitigate the likelihood of this exposure resulting in losses. The Company's exposure to credit risk is primarily attributable to its cash and cash equivalents, marketable securities, accounts and other receivables and lease receivables. The majority of the Company's net sales are paid prior to delivery and therefore the main credit exposure to net sales is with respect to the payment processor. The Company's maximum credit exposure corresponds to the carrying amount of these financial assets. Management believes the credit risk is limited given that the Company deals with major North American financial institutions and an internationally established payment processor. To cover its credit risk on lease receivables, the Company holds guarantees over its lessees in form of deposits and performs credit reviews prior to entering into an agreement.

INTEREST RATE RISK

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. As the Company no longer has a debt outstanding and interest rates on Debentures are fixed, the Company is not exposed to future cash flow risk on interest rates. The Company is only exposed to the fair value risk of the Debentures' interest rates.

MARKET RISK

The Company invested in marketable securities that consist of a liquid Bitcoin investment made through a non-currency hedged spot Exchange-Traded Fund (ETF). They are measured at fair value using Level 1 inputs.

The Company's investment is made through a spot ETF whose value is directly linked to the market price of Bitcoin. As a result, the Company is exposed to the risks inherent in holding an asset whose value is derived from cryptocurrency prices. Cryptocurrency prices are highly volatile and are influenced by numerous factors largely outside the Company's control, including global supply and demand dynamics, interest rates, exchange rates, inflation or deflation, regulatory developments, and broader political and economic conditions. The Company's profitability and financial condition are sensitive to the current and future market price of Bitcoin. A significant decline in Bitcoin's price could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations and financial condition. Based on the fair value of the marketable securities as at March 7, 2026, a 10% change in market price would represent a price risk exposure of $0.2 million.

LIQUIDITY RISK

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will be unable to fulfill its obligations on a timely basis or at a reasonable cost. The Company manages its liquidity risk by monitoring its operating requirements. The Company prepares budgets and cash forecasts to ensure it has sufficient funds to fulfill its obligations.

The Company monitors its risk of shortage of funds by monitoring forecasted and actual cash flows and maturity dates of existing financial liabilities and commitments and is actively managing its capital to ensure a sufficient liquidity position to finance its general and administrative, working capital and overall capital expenditures.

In order to manage its liquidity risk, the Company constantly reviews its operations and overall business to drive efficiencies to form the basis for positive cash flow and long-term profitable growth.

This assessment could be affected by economic, financial and future competitive factors, and other future events that are beyond the control of the Company. Management's liquidity assessment could be impacted if the actual operational performance is lower than the one used in the forecasted cash flows.

Please refer to the "Basis of presentation" section of this MD&A for a discussion on going concern.

SHARE-BASED PAYMENTS

Under the RSU plan, RSUs generally vest over a period of three years.

An employee share purchase plan ("ESPP") was established to attract and retain employees and directors. Under this plan, employees or directors are permitted to contribute between 1% and 5% of their eligible earnings, up to $10,000 annually, to purchase the Company's equity shares. The Company, in turn, provides a matching contribution equal to 50% of the participant's personal contribution. Shares purchased with the Company's contributions become vested two years from the contribution date. All contributions are used by the plan's trustee to purchase equity shares on the open market, on behalf of employees.
